

PRIVACY POLICY

1. Information We Collect The Novacent Foundation ("we", "us", or "our") is committed to protecting your privacy. We believe in the decentralized ethos of Web3. Our website (novacent.io) does not use invasive tracking cookies, pixel tags, or require user registration.

The only data we process is:

- Standard Server Logs: IP address, browser type, and operating system (temporarily stored by our hosting provider for security and performance).
- Voluntary Communication: If you contact us via support@novacent.io, we will securely store your email address solely to respond to your inquiry.

2. Web3 & Blockchain Data Please note that if you interact with the $NVCT token on the Solana blockchain, your public wallet address and transaction history will be permanently visible on the public ledger. This is the nature of blockchain technology and is beyond our control.

3. Third-Party Links Our website contains links to external platforms (e.g., X, Telegram). We are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of these third-party websites.

4. Your Rights You have the right to request the deletion of any personal email correspondence you have had with us. To do so, please contact: support@novacent.io
